CL Registration Rules section 5 apply in all cases:

5.3 A transferred player becomes eligible to play for his new club fourteen days after he last played for his previous club.

5.4 If a player is serving any league or club ban, whilst wishing to join a new club, the registration period of fourteen days will commence on the day following the end of such a ban.

5.5 Players who are the subject of a transfer or move between seasons must have discharged all their financial obligations to their former club and the League before the fourteen-day qualifying period can start.
